

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR THE CAMWS FIRST BOOK AWARD

The CAMWS Subcommittee on the First Book Award asks for your help in identifying distinguished first scholarly books published by CAMWS members in the past three years. Nominated authors must be members of the Association in good standing by September 1st in the year of nomination. Self-nominations are encouraged. Please send titles and publishing information to the chair of the subcommittee at firstbook@camws.org.

The winning book(s) are announced at the annual CAMWS business meeting.

Winner of the 2020-2021 Award

Nathaniel B. Jones (Washington University in St. Louis)

Painting, Ethics, and Aesthetics in Rome (Cambridge UP, 2019)

Further information, including eligibility requirements, deadlines, and a list of previous winners can be found at the First Book Award webpage:
