A LETTER FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Plans are moving ahead for the 102nd Annual Meeting of CAMWS in Gainesville, Florida, April 6-8, 2006. The Program Committee has accepted eleven panels and is now busy reviewing individual abstracts. We look forward to a program of excellent and diverse papers. With the support of a tourist development grant from Alachua County, Tim Johnson and the local committee have organized a 'night out' in downtown Gainesville for Thursday evening. On Friday afternoon, as is our custom, we will be meeting on the campus of the University of Florida. All of the Classics faculty, staff, and graduate students there, along with the undergraduates in the University's active chapter of Eta Sigma Phi, are working hard to make sure we enjoy the many delights of that campus. Post-banquet festivities on Friday evening will include Greek dancing to a live band.

With a room rate in the Holiday Inn West of only $78.95 per night, this will be one of the most affordable CAMWS meetings imaginable. I hope that you are planning to attend. Hotel and registration information and a draft of the program will be posted on the CAMWS website in December.

Natural disasters have dominated the news and our thoughts in past weeks with Hurricanes Katrina and Rita inflicting devastation on states within CAMWS territory and Wilma threatening as I write. Classical organizations quickly began to work to establish the whereabouts of our colleagues in the affected areas and to find ways to offer substantive help and support. The ACL has been established as a clearinghouse for information and support efforts (<http://www.aclassics.org/relief.asp>). The Executive Committee of CAMWS would welcome suggestions about how we might, as an organization and as individuals, be of assistance to classicists and classics programs afflicted by the hurricanes.

Best wishes for a successful fall term.

-Susan Martin, CAMWS President

GRADUATE STUDENT NEWS

The Graduate Student Issues Committee (GSIC) is pleased to announce a panel to be presented at this year's Annual Meeting in Gainesville, FL, titled "Don't Forget Your Towel: Preparing for Success in the Interview Process". Our five speakers will address some of the finer points of the process and tackle issues that will help you stand out as an applicant at various types of institutions. Victoria Pagán (University of Florida) will lay out the many facets of the interview process at smaller, non-research-oriented schools. Monica Cyrino (University of New Mexico) will provide the armament necessary to face the gauntlet of the R-1 interview in order to make it a productive, pleasurable experience. John Gruber-Miller (Cornell College) will address the interview process from the perspective of the smaller liberal arts school that focuses on teaching more than research. Paul Iversen (Case Western Reserve University) will give a presentation on the opportunities available to those who do not immediately land a tenure-track job. Finally, Sr. Pauline Nugent (Missouri State University) will close with some timely encouragement and suggestions on how best to manage the entire process.

In further good news, the intrepid members of GSIC have been invited to host a Pre-Institute Workshop at the coming ACL meeting in Philadelphia, PA (June 22–25, 2006), titled "Disce ut doceas: Preparing to TA in Latin". Here we will give a detailed overview of the necessary preparations for teaching Latin at the college level.

We are looking for new members for the Graduate Student Issues Committee for the 2006-07 academic year. If you have specific ideas for reaching out to graduate students during the year to increase membership, are eager to organize social events at the Annual Meeting, would enjoy putting together the yearly panel for grad students, and/or would be willing to write short pieces for the Newsletter, get in touch with one of the present members listed below. Website management skills would be an asset.

Please contact the members of the Graduate Student Issues Committee if you have suggestions for how the meeting or the organization can address graduate student needs along with concerns or questions about what CAMWS can do for you. The current members and their e-mail addresses are:

Bradley Peper, Vanderbilt University (Bradley.M.Peper@vanderbilt.edu)
Ric Rader, Ohio State University (Rader.59@osu.edu)
Mark Thorne, University of Iowa (mark-thorne@uiowa.edu)
Jon Zarecki, Illinois State University (jdzareck@ilstu.edu)

More information about GSIC, its services for graduate students, and the application for membership in the committee are available under the "Graduate Students" link from "News and Announcements" on the CAMWS main page (www.camws.org). Be sure to check out our Guide to Gainesville, and don't miss the Graduate Student Happy Hour from 6:30-7:30 p.m., April 6, in San Marcos C of the Holiday Inn West.

CAMWS SCHOOL AWARDS

Latin Translation Contest 2006

Applications must be received by February 1, 2006

The Classical Association of the Middle West and South will offer $250 cash prizes, book awards, and letters of commendation to qualifying winners in its 2006 School Awards Latin Translation Contest.

This year's competition is open to advanced Latin students enrolled in secondary schools in the 31 states and 3 provinces of CAMWS. Their teachers must be members of CAMWS, or their school libraries must subscribe to Classical Journal. Following an annual alternation of Prose and Poetry the one-hour exam will, this year, offer Latin hexameters or elegiacs exemplified by Vergil and Ovid. Contestants should translate as literally as possible without violating English idiom, and they should know the relevant vocabulary presented in Colby's Latin Word Lists, since words cited there are normally not defined on the test. The examination is intended for students who have had at least three years of Latin, but is also open to superior second-year students. It must be administered by a school official other than the Latin teacher during the week of February 20-24, 2006.

Writers of the ten most outstanding papers will each receive a $250 cash prize. An additional 20 outstanding contestants will receive a book prize relevant to classical antiquity. Other writers of meritorious examinations (10-20) will receive letters of commendation.

To enter, send the following information to the address below:

CAMWS TEACHING AWARDS CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR 2006

1. Kraft Award for Excellence in Secondary School Teaching:

Named for CAMWS benefactor Eunice E. Kraft, this award recognizes outstanding teachers of Latin in public or private schools (middle schools included) within our area. The honoree will receive $500, airfare to the Annual Meeting at the Saturday stayover rate, and two nights' accommodation at the convention hotel. On Saturday of the meeting, the recipient will give a brief talk at the CPL panel. Nominees must teach in the CAMWS area and will be eligible for consideration for three consecutive years.

Nominations should be accompanied by the following supporting data (not to exceed ten pages):

- information about the school(s) in which the nominee teaches;
- levels of Latin courses and enrollments;
- success of students in competitions and further study;
- information about any special courses or forms of instruction developed by the teacher;
- testimonials from school administrators, fellow teachers, and/or students.

2. Award for Excellence in College Teaching

The winner of this award will receive $500. The nominee must be a member in good standing of CAMWS, teaching classical subjects full-time at a college or university. Nominations should be accompanied by such evidence of teaching excellence as:

- student course evaluations or other student comments (which may include alumni comments),
- at least two letters of support from the recipient's teaching colleagues at the same or other institutions.

These letters should normally include one from the nominee's department or program chair. Other evidence of teaching excellence, such as pedagogical publications, is also welcome. Professional service may be considered a tie-breaking factor. Nominees who have not already been recognized through a national teaching award will be given preference. No sitting member of the CAMWS Executive Committee or of the CAMWS Subcommittee on Teaching Awards is eligible for this award.

Nominations: For each award, send one complete dossier to the Chair of the Selection Committee:

>>> Receipt Deadline: February 15, 2006 <<<

Presentation: The Teaching Awards will be presented at the CAMWS Annual Meeting in Gainesville, Florida.

CAMWS SERVICE AWARD

This marks the fourth year for a new CAMWS award that aims formally to acknowledge specific accomplishments that have been done "above and beyond the call of duty" for the profession and/or for the promotion of the classics in CAMWS territory. The award will be given pro re nata. Some years there may not be a suitable candidate; other years there may be more than one recipient.

Eligibility: CAMWS membership is not required. Recipients can be Classicists or non-Classicists who have made special contributions to the promotion of Latin and Classical studies, especially at the state and local level in CAMWS territory. Ideal candidates are people involved in our field who do much for their local communities or classics in general, but do not interact frequently if at all at large meetings. Nevertheless, these people make MORE than a difference. Suitable candidates for this award could also include parents or community members who have supported local Latin programs in notable ways, companies that donate money or other resources for the promotion of Latin, school administrators who have helped Latin teachers by giving access to school rooms or supplies or extra funds, newspapers or magazines that have given free advertising for events, benefactors who have given money for books or scholarships, or students who have promoted Latin in an original manner.

Nomination and selection process: Please submit by email attachment to Julia_Dyson@baylor.edu, by February 18, 2006, a statement of nomination, 500-600 words in length, that describes the nominee and his/her work. Supporting documents are not required but they may be solicited if questions arise. The chair of the Steering Committee on Awards and Scholarships with advice from the five subcommittee chairs will then determine the winners. Announcement of the results will be made at the spring meeting.

MANSON STEWART SCHOLARSHIP

Teachers of undergraduate students should remember to nominate their most outstanding young Classicists for the CAMWS Manson Stewart Scholarships. Every year CAMWS awards $1,000.00 scholarships to a limited number of undergraduate students majoring in Classics at the sophomore or junior level at a CAMWS college or university. Nominees are expected to take a minimum of two courses in Latin or Greek (normally at least one per quarter or semester) during the junior or senior year in which the scholarship is held (2006-07). Guidelines and instructions for potential applicants can be found on the CAMWS website (www.camws.org/awards/mansonco.html). Nomination forms are currently available to download from website and application forms will be available after 10 November. For any further information, please contact:

The RECEIPT DEADLINE for the coming year's applications will be 1 February 2006.

MANSON A. STEWART TEACHER TRAINING AND TRAVEL AWARDS

The Classical Association of the Middle West and South sponsors two Manson A. Stewart Awards for primary-, middle-, and secondary-school teachers. Recipients must be members of CAMWS. Winners of the Teacher Training Award in 2004-05 were Cynthia Bolon, Rolla High School; Steven R. Turner, Jr., Stratford Academy; and Matthew L. Behrensmeyer, a senior at DePauw University.

Teacher Training Awards: Designed to provide some financial assistance to those who wish to obtain certification to teach Latin at the primary through the secondary level, whether the specific courses are needed in Latin or in Education. The award is not intended to cover all costs of the training, and the size of the award varies according to the actual costs (primarily tuition and travel), the size of the committee's budget, and the number of applications. Previous awards have been as high as $1175. Deadline: received by February 15, 2006.

Travel Awards: Designed specifically to assist teachers of Latin with a cash award to offset the costs of attending the annual CAMWS meeting. The award is not intended to cover all costs of the travel, and the size of the award varies according to the actual costs the travel will entail, the size of the committee's budget, and the number of applications. Awards for travel to annual meetings have ranged from $300 to $600; for travel to the Southern Section, somewhat less. Deadline: received by February 15, 2006 for the regular CAMWS meeting, April 6-8, 2006 in Gainesville, FL.

Both application forms are available online. For further information and forms please write or e-mail: Dr. Carl P. E. Springer, College of Arts and Sciences, Dean's Office, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, IL 62026-1608. Phone: 618-650-5058. FAX: 618-650-5050; E-mail: casprin@siue.edu.

SEMPLÉ, GRANT, AND BENARIO AWARDS

The CAMWS Travel Awards Subcommittee is pleased to announce a competition for the Semplé, Grant, and Benario Awards.

The Semplé Award is a $2,500 fellowship for attending the 2006 summer session of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens

The Mary A. Grant Award is a $2,500 fellowship for attending the 2006 summer session of the American Academy in Rome.

The Janice and Herbert Benario Award is a $1,500 fellowship that the recipient may apply to the 2006 summer travel program of his or her choice.

Recipients of these awards must be current members of CAMWS who either currently hold teaching positions in Greek or Latin in an elementary or secondary school in the CAMWS territory or are enrolled as graduate students in a degree-granting program in Classics. The application form is now available online. The receipt deadline for applications will be January 31, 2006.

For more information, please contact T. Davina McClain, Associate Professor of Classical Studies, Loyola University New Orleans, at mclain@loyno.edu, a.a.major@att.net or by phone at 504-865-3683 (office), 985-653-3908 (home). Mail should be directed to 2251 W. Canterbury Dr., LaPlace, LA 70068.

ETA SIGMA PHI SCHOLARSHIPS

Eta Sigma Phi, the national honorary classics society, offers three scholarships to members for summer programs abroad: A Summer Session of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, the Summer Classical School of the American Academy in Rome, and the Cumae Session of the Vergilian Society.

Eligible to apply for the scholarships to ASCSA and AAR are members and alumni/ae of Eta Sigma Phi who have received a bachelor's degree since January 1, 2000, or shall have received it on or before June 2006, and who have not received a doctoral degree. For the Vergilian Society, in addition to those in the preceding category, undergraduate members are eligible to apply and are given preference.

In addition, the society offers the Bernice L. Fox Teacher Training Scholarship to a member who is teaching, or preparing to teach, in the secondary schools for participation in a summer activity in the United States that will contribute to the recipient's preparation for teaching.

For additional information, contact the Executive Secretary of Eta Sigma Phi, Thomas J. Sienkewicz, Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois 61462, 309-457-2371 or toms@monm.edu.

RIPON COLLEGE Classical Studies Program NATIONAL LATIN EXAM SCHOLARSHIPS

Ripon College awards a $2,000 annual scholarship, valued at $8,000 over four years, to any admitted first-year student who has earned at least a Magna designation on the Level II or higher National Latin Exam.

The student will be expected to take one Latin, Greek, or Classics course the first year and to maintain satisfactory progress towards a major in any field for renewal of the award. This scholarship can be combined with other Academic or Performance Tuition Scholarships that currently range from $5,000 to $15,000 annually depending upon qualifications.

Founded in 1851 and home to a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa since 1952, Ripon College offers personalized instruction and cooperative inquiry in the liberal arts. Its curriculum engages students in clear reasoning, persuasive communication, and confident and effective approaches to change.

Further information is available from the Ripon College Office of Admissions, 300 Seward Street, PO Box 248, Ripon WI 54971; www.ripon.edu; 1-800-94RIPON; adminfo@ripon.edu. Details about Classics offerings and their role in Ripon's liberal arts curriculum are available from Professor E. R. Lowry (lowrye@ripon.edu). HOGAN PRIZE IN CLASSICAL STUDIES

The College of William and Mary announces the continuation of the Hogan Prize in Classical Studies, made possible by a bequest by William Johnson Hogan, distinguished alumnus of the College. For the academic year 2006-2007 there will be available a grant of $1,000.00 for an entering student who will have completed with distinction at least three years of Latin or Greek at time of graduation. Application forms can be downloaded from the Web at <http://www.wm.edu/classicalstudies/hoganapplication.pdf>.

These application forms should be sent to: Dr. Barbette S. Spaeth, Chair; Department of Classical Studies; College of William and Mary; P.O. Box 8795; Williamsburg, Virginia 23187-8795. Deadline for application is March 1, 2006. The successful applicant will be notified around April 1, 2006. This award is, of course, contingent upon successful admission to the College. The grantee will be expected to enroll during his or her freshman year in at least three courses offered by the Department of Classical Studies (two of these must be in Greek or Latin). The grant may be continued during the sophomore year and beyond if the student earns a grade of "A" or "B" in courses taken in the freshman year and elects to continue the study of Greek or Latin after that. Preference will be shown to the applicant who contemplates a concentration in the Department of Classical Studies.

M.A.T. AT COLORADO COLLEGE

The Latin Institute at Colorado College in Colorado Springs welcomes inquiries regarding its program for the summer of 2006 (June 5-August 4). Students may take individual courses (three courses are offered in each of the three summer blocks) or earn an M.A.T. in three summers. Colorado College offers half-tuition for teachers with a contract. For information contact: Patricia FitzGibbon (719-389-6009) pfitzgibbon@coloradocollege.edu or Kendra Henry (719-389-6935) khenry@coloradocollege.edu

STUDY ABROAD IN GREECE WITH AUSTIN PEAY STATE UNIVERSITY

Prof. Timothy Winters will again lead a program in Greece from 29 May to July 2, 2006, for secondary teachers, university students, and others. All participants take two courses for 7 hours of credit through APSU: Greek Art and Archaeology, and Intensive Modern Greek. We visit about 50 sites and museums over the course of 5 weeks, including Knossos, Phaistos, Chania, Mycenae, Corinth, Delphi, Olympia, Nemea, Pylos and many others. For full details, please contact Dr. Winters at winterst@apsu.edu. Visit our website: www.apsu.edu/study_abroad/greece/index.htm for a full look at the program.

STUDY THEATRE & ANCIENT TRAVELERS IN GREECE WITH KIIS

The Kentucky Institute for International Studies (KIIS) offers the opportunity to study and earn college credit while traveling to Greece in the summer of 2006. This year there will be a special focus on theatre and drama; students will be able to study ancient and modern Greek plays, and to perform as well. The five-week program will spend time and visit sites and museums in Athens, Naxos, Delos and Mykonos, Delphi, Olympia, the Argolid, and Siphnos. Students can take up to two of the following courses: Acting With Masks; Contemporary Greek Theatre (both taught by Dr. Deborah Martin of Berea College) Ancient Travel and Tourism (John Svarlien of Transylvania University); Ancient Drama (Diane Arnson Svarlien of Georgetown College). Program dates: May 30 – July 5, 2006. The program is open to academically qualified students over age 18. For more information see <http://www.kiis.org>, or contact John Svarlien (jsvarlien@transy.edu) or Diane Arnson Svarlien (dasvar00@uky.edu).

FULL COLOR BROCHURE TO PROMOTE LATIN STUDY

The National Committee for Latin and Greek in cooperation with the American Classical League recently printed 35,000 copies of a color brochure to encourage the study of Latin in secondary schools. "Latin: More than Just a Language" is an American version of a brochure produced several years ago by the Joint Association of Classical Teachers in Britain. Virginia Barrett and Tom Sienkewicz revised the text and photos. About 3000 copies were distributed gratis to teachers at ACL Institute in June and 1000 complimentary copies sent to each of the NCLG's sponsoring member associations. The brochures are suitable for distribution to students, parents, school boards, or school administrators.

The six panel brochure may be viewed at Tom's website: <http://department.monm.edu/classics/cpl/promotionalmaterials/BarrettBrochure.pdf>

The purpose of the brochure is to encourage students in secondary schools to study Latin language and Roman culture. The brochure provides reasons for the study of Latin: that it is a major source of English and the Romance languages; provides direct access to some of the finest literature and art; brings students into the mainstream of their own culture; and helps prepare students for college admissions and interesting careers. Former Latin students and celebrities like Coach Joe Paterno and comedian Teller testify to the value of studying the subject. The brochure has photos of Roman architecture, technology, and JCL students in togas.

Sets of brochures up to 100 per teacher may be ordered from the ACL's Teaching Materials Resource Center for $5 flat rate per order for shipping and handling: Miami University, Oxford, Ohio 45056 or phone (513) 529-7741. Classical organizations needing more copies may order in bulk from Virginia Barrett for $100 per 1000 brochures. Send your check, payable to the NCLG, to 11371 Matinicus Court, Cypress, CA 90630. Allow three weeks for delivery. Please indicate where and to whom the brochures should be mailed. We hope that teachers will use them to build and maintain their Latin programs and membership in JCL clubs.

Virginia and Tom are planning to revise this brochure for a college student audience in the near future. If you have any suggestions about material which should be put in this revised brochure, please contact Tom Sienkewicz at toms@monm.edu or Virginia Barrett at barrettcyp@aol.com.

CALL FOR PAPERS

November 2-4, 2006
Memphis, Tennessee

Abstracts are invited for the eighty-sixth anniversary meeting of the Southern Section of the Classical Association of the Middle West and South, set for November 2-4, 2006, at the University of Memphis Holiday Inn in Memphis, Tennessee, at the invitation of Rhodes College, in cooperation with Hendrix College, Memphis City Schools, St. Mary's Episcopal School, Shelby County Schools, The University of Memphis, and The University of Mississippi.

Proposals are welcome for papers and panels devoted to any aspect of Graeco-Roman antiquity, including pedagogical topics. Colleagues at institutions with graduate programs are urged to encourage submission of abstracts by graduate students.

For individual papers, please submit a printed one-page abstract, with the abstract submission form on the reverse of this sheet. Papers should be 15 minutes in length, or 20 minutes for illustrated presentations. Be sure to note on the form whether you will need audiovisual equipment—computers cannot be supplied.

Organizers of panels should submit an overall description and a one-page abstract of each presentation. The names and academic affiliations of the organizers and presenters should be listed on a separate page. Especially encouraged are panels likely to be of broad interest, including those concerned with pedagogy.

Presenters must be members of CAMWS at the time of submission. Dues and a membership form (www.camws.org) may be enclosed with the abstract.

Please send abstracts and panel proposals to:

and Graduate Student Association Representatives

Please share the following information with your graduate student colleagues!

Graduate student? Member of CAMWS?

If your answer to both queries is yes, then you need read no further. You already have the scoop on the advantages of membership in CAMWS. But if you are a graduate student and not currently enrolled in CAMWS, consider just several of the perks you could and should enjoy:

- (1) eligibility for the Semple, Grant, and Benario awards, which provide generous funding for summer study at the American School of Classical Studies in Athens (Semple), at the American Academy in Rome (Grant), or on a summer travel program of your choice (Benario);
- (2) a subscription to Classical Journal, a periodical delivering both scholarly and pedagogical articles right to your doorstep;
- (3) the opportunity to travel and to gain valuable experience in delivering an academic paper at the CAMWS Annual Meeting, a small and friendly venue hosted by a different member institution each year;
- (4) the opportunity to meet your colleagues in the field, to engage in the lively exchange of ideas and interests, and to make potentially life-long connections; and
- (5) access to a wealth of materials which can contribute to your success as a present and future teacher and scholar.

Interested? It's not too late! You can find a membership form in this newsletter or at the CAMWS home page (www.camws.org), and the reduced fee for student membership is just $25.

BECOME AN INSTITUTIONAL MEMBER OF CAMWS!

If your school is not an Institutional Member of CAMWS, here's why it should be: it helps the students at your institution; it increases your visibility as a department; and it maximizes your potential for outreach into the CAMWS community. By paying an annual fee of $50 (for a K-12 school or an institution offering a B.A. or M.A. in Classics) or $100 (for an institution offering a Ph.D. in Classics), you get this great deal:

- The right to choose one student as winner of a CAMWS Award for Outstanding Accomplishment in Classical Studies. The student gets a fancy certificate and a free membership in CAMWS for the following academic year (2006-07).
- The option to purchase the right to select up to two additional student award recipients.
- A fancy certificate stating your institution's support of CAMWS.
- Publication of institutional announcements free of charge in the CAMWS Newsletter.
- K-12 Institutional Members: one free registration at the CAMWS Annual Meeting.
- Inclusion on the list of CAMWS Institutional Members, printed in Classical Journal, the CAMWS Newsletter, and (if received by Dec. 1) the Program of the CAMWS Annual Meeting, and posted on the CAMWS website.

Please talk with your chairperson or department head about this opportunity to support CAMWS. An Institutional Membership form is included in this newsletter and can be downloaded from the CAMWS website: www.camws.org/about/im/im.html. The form must be received by February 1, 2006. Student winner(s) for 2006-07 must be designated by May 1, 2006.

Thanks for your support!
-Monica Cyrino, Membership Committee Chair

ELECTRONIC PUBLICATION OF THE CAMWS NEWSLETTER AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The electronic version of the CAMWS Newsletter is posted to the CAMWS website as soon as the camera-ready copy is sent to the CAMWS office at St. Olaf College for printing and mailing. The information contained in the printed copy is thus available electronically to the membership approximately one month before the printed copy arrives in the mail. Announcements will normally be posted to the CAMWS website as soon as they are received, making it possible for the membership to meet important deadlines that might otherwise appear late because of the delay in printing and mailing the hard copy. The URL is www.camws.org.
