Manson A. Stewart Awards

1. Manson A. Stewart Teacher Training Awards
Designed to provide some financial assistance to those who wish to obtain certification to teach Latin at the primary through the secondary level, whether the specific courses are needed in Latin or in Education. The award is not intended to cover all costs of the training; the size of the award varies according to the actual costs (primarily tuition and travel), the size of the committee's budget, and the number of applications. Previous awards have been as high as $1175.

The receipt deadline for applications for the Stewart Teacher Training Awards is February 2, 2009.

2. Manson A. Stewart Travel Awards
Designed specifically to assist teachers of Latin with a cash award to offset the costs of attending CAMWS meetings. The award is not intended to cover all costs of the travel; the size of the award varies according to the actual costs the travel will entail, the size of the committee's budget, and the number of applications. Previous travel awards have ranged from $200 to $600. Three attendees of the CAMWS Southern Section Meeting in Asheville have already received travel awards this year, but there is still funding available for the CAMWS Annual Meeting in Minneapolis.

The receipt deadline for applications for the Stewart Travel Awards is February 2, 2009.

Application forms for the Stewart Teacher Training Awards and the Stewart Travel Awards may be downloaded from: http://www.camws.org/awards/MASteachtravinst.html

If you have any questions, please contact Alice Sanford (alice.sanford@mnps.org).

Manson A. Stewart Scholarships

Teachers of undergraduate students are invited to nominate their most outstanding young Classicists for the 2008-2009 CAMWS Manson Stewart Scholarships. Every year CAMWS awards $1,000 scholarships to a limited number of undergraduate students majoring in Classics at the sophomore or junior level at a college or university in CAMWS territory. Nominees are expected to take a minimum of two courses in Latin or Greek (normally at least one per quarter or semester) during the junior or senior year in which the scholarship is held.

A department may nominate up to two students per year; the person who fills out the (very brief) nomination form must be a member of CAMWS. Each nominee must complete an application form, write a brief essay, and submit a college or university transcript and two letters of recommendation. The letters of recommendations need not be written by CAMWS members. Nomination and application forms may be downloaded from: http://www.camws.org/awards/MAScollinst.html

The receipt deadline for nomination forms and all parts of the application is February 2, 2009.

Please send inquiries, nomination forms, and application materials to:

CAMWS Teaching Awards

1. Kraft Award for Excellence in Secondary School Teaching

Named for CAMWS benefactor Eunice E. Kraft, this award recognizes outstanding teachers of Latin in public or private schools (middle schools included) within CAMWS territory. The honoree will receive $500, airfare to the CAMWS Annual Meeting, and two nights' accommodation at the convention hotel. Nominees will be eligible for consideration for three consecutive years.

Nominations should be accompanied by the following supporting data (not to exceed ten pages):

* information about the school(s) in which the nominee teaches;
* levels of Latin courses and enrollments;
* success of students in competitions and further study;
* information about any special courses or forms of instruction developed by the teacher;
* testimonials from school administrators, fellow teachers, and/or students.

The receipt deadline for applications for the Kraft Teaching Award is February 2, 2009.

2. CAMWS Award for Excellence in College Teaching

The winner of this award will receive $500. The nominee must be a member in good standing of CAMWS, teaching classical subjects full-time at a college or university in CAMWS territory. Nominations should be accompanied by such evidence of teaching excellence as:

* student course evaluations or other student/alumni comments
* at least two letters of support from teaching colleagues at the same or other institutions

These letters should normally include one from the nominee's department or program chair. Other evidence of teaching excellence, such as pedagogical publications, is also welcome. Professional service may be considered a tie-breaking factor. Nominees who have not already been recognized through a national teaching award will be given preference. No member of the CAMWS Executive Committee or Subcommittee on Teaching Awards is eligible for this award.

The receipt deadline for nominations for the CAMWS Teaching Award is February 2, 2009.

Nomination packets should be mailed to Patsy R. Ricks, 216 River Place, Jackson, MS 39211. If you have any questions, please write to her at ricksp@gosaints.org. For more information see: http://www.camws.org/awards/teacher.html

Semple, Grant, & Benario Awards

* The Semple Award is a $3,500 fellowship for attending the summer session of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens.

* The Mary A. Grant Award is a $4,500 fellowship for attending the summer session of the American Academy in Rome.

* The Janice and Herbert Benario Award is a $2,000 fellowship that the recipient may apply to the summer travel program of his or her choice

Recipients of these awards must be current members of CAMWS who either:

* hold teaching positions in Latin or Greek in an elementary or secondary school in CAMWS territory, or
• are enrolled as graduate students in a degree-granting program in Classics at a university in CAMWS territory.

The receipt deadline for applications for these three awards is February 13, 2009. To download the application form, go to: http://www.camws.org/awards/sgb.html

For more information please contact Matthew McGowan (mamegowan@fordham.edu).

CAMWS Award for Special Service

This award acknowledges an individual's exceptional accomplishments for the profession and/or for the promotion of Classics in CAMWS territory. The award is given pro re nata.

Eligibility: Nominees must have made special contributions to the promotion of Latin and Classical Studies in CAMWS territory. They need not be Classicists or CAMWS members. Suitable candidates could be parents, community members, or school administrators who have supported local Latin programs in notable ways, companies that have donated money or other resources for the promotion of Latin, newspapers or magazines that have offered free advertising for events, benefactors who have given money for books or scholarships, or students who have promoted Latin in an original manner.

Nomination and selection process: Please submit a statement of nomination, 500-600 words in length, that describes the nominee and his/her work. E-mail the statement as an attachment to Steve Fineberg (sfineber@knox.edu) by February 13, 2009. Supporting documents are not required, but they may be solicited if questions arise. The chair of the Steering Committee on Awards and Scholarships, with advice from the five subcommittee chairs, will determine the winners. Results will be announced at the CAMWS Annual Meeting in Minneapolis.

CPL Award for Outstanding Promotional Activity in the Schools

To support programs and activities in primary and secondary schools, the CAMWS Committee for the Promotion of Latin (CPL) annually recognizes with a plaque and a certificate the group that develops the most outstanding and effective activity for promoting Latin in CAMWS territory during each academic year (including the preceding summer). The winner of this award is announced every spring at the CAMWS Annual Meeting.

Any group wishing to compete for this award must be sponsored by a current CAMWS member and must submit an application to Carin Green (carin-green@uiowa.edu), Chair of the Committee for the Promotion of Latin. Applications for CPL grants may be combined with applications for this award. The application letter must include a 100-word summary of the project and a more detailed project description not to exceed 500 words in length. Applicants are encouraged to attach supporting materials such as photographs, flyers, pertinent newspaper articles, etc.

The receipt deadline for applications is March 13, 2009.

Please send all inquiries and applications to:

Plaudite, omnes!

Congratulations to Mark Joyal, CAMWS Vice-President for Manitoba, who received the 2008 Award of Merit from the Classical Association of Canada.

Here is the text of the citation read at the Annual General Meeting of the Classical Association of Canada in May, 2008:

The Award of Merit Committee has the honour of naming Professor Mark Joyal as the first recipient of the Classical Association of Canada’s Award of Merit. The award recognizes Professor Joyal’s manifold and sustained services to Classical studies in Canada as a teacher, scholar and administrator.

After completing his studies at the University of Manitoba and St Andrews University, Professor Joyal held temporary posts at the Universities of Calgary and Toronto before being appointed to the Department of Classics at Memorial University. He served there for seventeen years, twelve of these as department head. Since 2003 he has been Professor of Classics and department head at the University of Manitoba. He is a rigorous and inspirational teacher, untiring in his commitment to this fundamental duty of our profession. By regularly teaching a full complement of courses alongside his administrative and editorial work he has advanced both the programmes concerned and the progress of many individual students towards their degrees. In the realm of scholarship he is noted for his scrupulous work on the texts of Plato and others, especially the Platonic Theages, and is now contributing to editions in both the Éditions Budé and the Oxford Classical Texts series. He has performed signal service to the Association and to the Canadian scholarly community as an editor of Échos du monde classique/Classical Views, now Mouseion, for no less than fourteen years, and his editorial activity has extended to several collections of essays as well as a jointly authored sourcebook on Greek and Roman education to be published this year. His administrative skills, dedication and patience have earned the respect and gratitude of his colleagues and have ensured the health and advancement, often in difficult times, of the programmes and projects which he has guided.

Mark Joyal’s personal qualities of intellectual and ethical rigour, good judgement, generosity and humanitas have consistently inspired and encouraged those who work with him. We are proud to recognize him as one who has served, and continues to serve, the cause of Classical studies in Canada with distinction.

Report of the Resolutions Committee for the 2008 Biennial Meeting of the CAMWS Southern Section

The members of the Resolutions Committee, Greg Daugherty, Nancy Howell, and myself, offer these resolutions for your consideration.

Whereas our colleagues at the University of North Carolina-Asheville and the other members of the local committee have labored tirelessly to make our meeting a success, and Sophie Mills, dux femina facti, has even welcomed us to Asheville in a delightful regional accent,

Be it resolved that we proffer our heartfelt thanks.

Whereas the University of North Carolina-Asheville has graciously provided

- A magnificent library exhibition of “The World of the Medieval Scribe” featuring some medieval scribes whom George Washington Vanderbilt had purchased outright;
- the use of meeting rooms in the High Student Center, which proved, in the poet’s words, utile et computer-ready;
• an experience at once gustatory and aesthetic, as we feasted on food-court cuisine and marveled at the wall devoted to the “School of Asheville,” (poorly imitated on a smaller scale by Raphael in the Vatican apartments), widely considered the greatest work of visual art in this and every contiguous zip code. Here we could eat our monster calzones at the feet of Plato, Aristotle, two bulldog mascots, and an unknown philosopher (Keith Dix?) in the lower righthand corner.

• a journey to the Pinnacle, supported by Humanities Dean Bill Spellman, and by Provost Jane Fernandes, who tendered us a gracious and thoughtful welcome, and provided an opulent reception offering an abundance of exotic fruits and vegetables, exquisite cheeses, the fruit of the local vine, and serious brewskies;

Be it resolved that we tender them our deep gratitude.

Whereas the offices of the Southern Section have done us so proud that they drive us to anacolouthon, we single out elected executive committee member Laurel Fulkerson (“The Lady in Red”) for exactly fulfilling her role, Vice-President Mark Keith for organizing his important panel, and for embodying our belief that secondary and post-secondary classicists hold both our students and our vocation in common, President Keith Dix, both for organizing his superb presidential panel and for the marvel that was his banquet address. President Dix spanned two millennia, from the extravagant, tasteless and vulgar display of Neronian Rome to the extravagant, tasteless and vulgar display of the Roaring Twenties, ending with a careful consideration of George W. Vanderbilt, the non-working scion of a family of philanthropic but fundamentally rapacious robber-barons. In the course of President Dix’s remarks, we were reminded of the common thread that holds together every member of the human family across the millennia, and across divisions of wealth, class, and culture, that one constant in the tortured variety of human experience...Libraries!

One other officer deserves her own paragraph, and so much more. Our secretary-treasurer, Davina McClain, the indefatigable and relentlessly optimistic sine qua non of our sodalitas has, with her strong right hand Joshua Nuss, fielded countless questions and attended to countless details to bring our meeting about. She made this meeting happen. This achievement, along with deep knowledge of popular culture evident in her session titles, leave no doubt that she is truly the Oprah of organization.

Be it resolved that we laud all our officers with condign praise.

Whereas the staff of the Biltmore Doubletree has provided impeccable service, sumptuous fare, and warm chocolate-chip cookies,

Be it resolved that we thank them for a job well done (and will be asking for another cookie at checkout).

Finally, whereas all our colleagues at this meeting, those who have spoken and those who will speak, those who have heard and will hear, have kept the spirit of the Southern Section alive and well into the next biennium,

Be it resolved that we take a grateful moment to consider our remarkable past, our congenial present, and the promise of a wonderful meeting in 2010. On to Richmond!

Respectfully submitted,
Chris Craig, Chair, Resolutions Committee

Become an Institutional Member of CAMWS!

Many thanks to the 34 generous institutions that have already paid for institutional membership in CAMWS for 2008-2009! The cost is $100 for a Ph.D-granting university, $50 for any other institution. Receipt deadline for payment (by check or by credit card via the CAMWS website) is February 2, 2009. Last year we were excited to reach 84 institutional members; we hope to hit 90 this year. Congratulations to our champion Monmouth College, an institutional member for nine straight years! Emory University, Ripon College, and Wayne State University are close behind at eight years each. Special thanks to the Wisconsin Latin Teachers Association, our only non-school institutional member. For lists of past and present institutional members, application forms, and more information visit the CAMWS website: http://www.camws.org/about/im

Hogan Prize in Classical Studies

The College of William and Mary announces the continuation of the Hogan Prize in Classical Studies, made possible by a bequest by William Johnson Hogan, distinguished alumnus of the College. For the academic year 2009-2010 there will be available a grant of $1,000.00 for an entering student who will have completed with distinction at least three years of Latin or Greek at time of graduation.

Application forms can be downloaded from the Web at http://www.wm.edu/classicalstudies/hoganapplication.pdf. These application forms should be sent to:

Dr. John F. Donahue
Department of Classical Studies
College of William and Mary
P.O. Box 8795
Williamsburg, Virginia 23187-8795

Deadline for application is March 1, 2009. The successful applicant will be notified around April 1, 2009. This award is, of course, contingent upon successful admission to the College. The grantee will be expected to enroll during his or her freshman year in at least three courses offered by the Department of Classical Studies (two of these must be in Greek or Latin). The grant may be continued during the sophomore year and beyond if the student earns a grade of "A" or "B" in courses taken in the freshman year and elects to continue the study of Greek or Latin after that. Preference will be shown to the applicant who contemplates a concentration in the Department of Classical Studies.

Scholarships in Memory of Louise Taft Semple

The Department of Classics at the University of Cincinnati is honored to offer competitive scholarships covering in-state (Ohio) tuition for incoming freshmen and continuing students who will be taking Greek or Latin at the intermediate level (300 level courses or above). Freshmen and sophomores may hold a Semple Scholarship without declaring a Classics or Classical Civilization Major, but juniors and seniors must be majors. Semple Scholars are required to enroll in at least one Greek or Latin course each quarter. Full requirements for the Semple Scholarship and Majors may be found at: classics.uc.edu/undergrad.

Candidates should submit a letter of application, statement of purpose (i.e., why do you want to study Classics?), and letters of recommendation from three teachers, at least one of whom must be the student’s Latin or Greek teacher. Application materials should be sent to:

Dr. Kathleen M. Lynch
Director of Undergraduate Studies
Department of Classics
University of Cincinnati
P.O. Box 210226
Cincinnati, OH 45221-0226

Applications must be received by March 2, 2009. Secondary school or transfer students should also indicate on their application to the University of Cincinnati that they are applying for a Semple Scholarship. Applicants from outside the University of Cincinnati must also take a QUALIFYING EXAMINATION, which will be given on SATURDAY, March 14, 2009, 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM IN ROOM 305 BLEGEN LIBRARY, Main Campus, University of Cincinnati. Other arrangements can be made to accommodate candidates who live outside the Cincinnati area. If it will be a hardship to take the test at the announced time and place, please contact the Classics Program Coordinator at (513-556-3050) as soon as possible and alternative arrangements will be made.

The exam consists of questions on Latin accidence and syntax and short passages from Cicero or Virgil for translation. AP Latin is an excellent preparation.

American School of Classical Studies at Athens

Programs & Fellowships for 2009-2010

The American School of Classical Studies at Athens, one of America’s most distinguished centers devoted to advanced teaching and research, was founded in 1881 to provide American graduate students and scholars a base for their studies in the history and civilization of the Greek world. Today it is still a teaching institution, providing graduate students a unique opportunity to study firsthand the sites and monuments of Greece. The School is also a superb resource for senior scholars pursuing research in fields ranging from antiquity to modern Greece, thanks to its internationally renowned libraries, the Blegen, dedicated to classical antiquity, and the Gennadius, which concentrates on the Greek world after the end of antiquity.

School programs are generally open to qualified students and scholars at colleges or universities in the U.S. or Canada. For more information and to apply online visit our website: http://www.ascsa.edu.gr. Mailing address: ASCSA, 6-8 Charlton Street, Princeton, NJ 08540. Telephone: 609-683-0800. E-mail: ascsa@ascsa.org.

Baylor in Italy: Rome, The Bay of Naples, and Sicily
June 2 – July 7, 2009

Baylor in Italy, designed to give an in-depth background in the art, archaeology, and literature of ancient Rome, can be taken for 6 credits. Students fly to Rome for on-site study, including trips to Herculaneum, Pompeii, Naples and Paestum, before heading south for an extensive tour of Sicily. Students may choose two of the following courses: Topography of Rome (3 cr.), Archaeology of Sicily (3 cr.), or Latin Epigraphy (3 cr.). The trip price of $5295.00 includes round-trip airfare, from the U.S. to Rome; all room accommodations in quality hotels; all breakfasts and dinners, and some lunches; all bus travel and transportation in Italy; all museum entries. Tuition is paid separately to the Baylor registrar.

For more information, please visit the website (http://www.baylor.edu/italy) or contact Antony Augustakis or John Thorburn, Department of Classics, One Bear Place #97352, Baylor University, Waco, TX 76798 (Phone: 254-710-1399; fax: 254-710-1367). E-mail: Antonios_Augoustakis@baylor.edu or John_Thorburn@baylor.edu.

The Isles of Greece, 2009: The Saronic and Argolic Gulfs
May – June, 2009

The University of South Dakota will offer an interdisciplinary sailing and study tour in Greece for undergraduate and graduate students in May and June of 2009. This course, now in its fifth year, will introduce students to a variety of aspects of life in the Aegean Sea over the five millennia from the Bronze Age to our own time. Although the program includes several days in and around Athens, most of the time is based on sailing yachts. The nautical life will give students a sense of the Greek islands as the Greeks saw them in an age before mechanized travel: from the sea in sailing vessels. Students will learn to sail and live aboard a sailboat. For further information and application instructions visit http://www.usd.edu/~clehmann or send an e-mail to Clayton Lehmann at clehmann@usd.edu.

Announcing ECCE ROMA 2009!

TEP: $125,000 Salary for Master Latin Teachers

The Equity Project (TEP) Charter School is a 480-student middle school that will serve students in the Washington Heights area of New York City (Community School District 6). TEP is currently hiring for teaching positions in Latin. One of the unique aspects of TEP is our teacher's compensation, $125,000, which is part of our philosophy that teacher investment and quality is key to the academic success of students. The New York Times wrote about TEP in the spring; you should be able to find that article at: http://www.nytimes.com/2008/03/07/nyregion/07charter.html
TEP aims to put into practice the central conclusion of a large body of research related to student achievement: teacher quality is the most important school-based factor in the academic success of students, particularly those from low-income families. In singling out teacher quality as the essential lever in educational reform, TEP is uniquely focused on attracting and retaining master teachers. To do so, TEP uses a three-pronged strategy that it terms the 3 R’s: Rigorous Qualifications, Redefined Expectations, & Revolutionary Compensation. Call for Papers - Classical Association of Canada

Women’s Network/Reseau des Femmes Panel: “Generations of Women”

Annual Meeting: May 12-14, 2009 - Vancouver (University of British Columbia)

The theme for this year’s Women’s Network/Réseau des Femmes Panel at the CAC is “Generations of Women”. This panel explores the construction and representation of women as mothers, daughters, sisters and grandmothers and intergenerational connections with the body, the family and society more broadly, as well as the legacy of women scholars in the discipline of Classics. Suggested topics include, but are not limited to: functional and dysfunctional familial relationships (including both public and private contexts); women and reproduction (within medical texts, religious rituals and demography); women in foundation myths; feminist pedagogy; contributions of 19th- and 20th-century female classical scholars. This call for papers is meant to be suggestive rather than exclusive; we welcome papers that consider the theme from a variety of perspectives and sources of evidence (textual, visual, and material).

Send a 300-word abstract on the proposal form, by January 16, 2009, to Dr. Leanne Bablitz via e-mail (lbablitz@interchange.ubc.ca) or regular mail: Department of Classical, Near Eastern and Religious Studies, University of British Columbia, BUCH C 1866 Main Mall, Vancouver, BC Canada V6T 1Z1. In addition, send a second copy of the abstract and the proposal form – meeting the same criteria, to Dr. Allison Glazebrook via e-mail (aglazebrook@brocku.ca) or regular mail: Dept. of Classics, Brock University, St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada L2S 3A1. Indicate on the submission form and in the e-mail subject line that the submission is to be considered for the “Generations of Women – WN/RF panel”.

See http://www.cnrsconferences.arts.ubc.ca/index.php?id=426 for the proposal form. For general inquiries e-mail Fanny Dolansky (fdolansky@brocku.ca), Allison Glazebrook, or Kathryn Mattison (Kathryn.mattison@utoronto.ca).

Grants from the CAMWS Committee for the Promotion of Latin

Need funds for a project involving your Classics students?
Consider applying for a grant from CPL!

So far this year CPL has awarded four $50 Caristia grants and six CPL grants ranging in size from $150 to $750. There is still money left in the budget. You could be the next lucky recipient!

For information and an online application see:

CAMWS COMMITTEE QUESTIONNAIRE

Each year there are vacancies to fill on CAMWS committees and subcommittees. Michele Ronnick, CAMWS President-Elect, would like to hear from anyone interested in being appointed to a committee or in serving as a State/Provincial or Regional Vice-President. Please mark in order of preference (1, 2, 3, etc.) any committee(s) on which you would be willing to serve. Then mail or fax this page to Prof. Ronnick at the address below; you may also e-mail the information to her. Deadline for consideration for 2009-2010 is April 4, 2009. Former recipients of ovationes are encouraged to volunteer for the Merit Committee; former recipients of CAMWS awards would be especially welcome on the subcommittees. Thank you!
