By Air

There are two terminals at Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport (MSP): the main one, called the Lindbergh Terminal, and a subsidiary one, called the Humphrey Terminal. A free shuttle service by light rail runs between the two terminals. There are several options for travel from the Lindbergh Terminal to the Marriott City Center Hotel:

Rental cars: Companies represented at the airport are Alamo, Avis, Budget, Dollar, Enterprise, Hertz, and National. At the Lindbergh Terminal the counters are in the Hub Building, located between the Blue and Red parking ramps on Level 3. Passengers at the Lindbergh Terminal can take the underground tram to reach the Hub Building. At the Humphrey Terminal, counters are located in the Ground Transport Center on the ground level of the parking ramp, directly across from the terminal building.

The Marriott City Center is located about 12 miles NW of the airport. For rental-car drivers the easiest way to reach the hotel is to exit the airport and take I-494W to 35W north. Exit 35W at 5th Ave. and head north three blocks to 7th St. and turn left on 7th. The hotel will be 5 1/2 blocks on the right. For a map see www.minneapolisconventioncenter.com/content/PDF/freeway\_access.pdf

Taxis: Taxis line up along the lower-level curb of the Lindbergh Terminal. The average fare to the hotel is about $25; the trip should take 20-30 minutes depending on the time of day and traffic conditions.

Shuttles: The hotel does not offer its own shuttle service, but service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, through SuperShuttle (1-800-258-3826). Shuttle vans carry 7 to 10 passengers. One-way fare from the Lindbergh Terminal to downtown hotels is $13; round-trip fare is $21. Online reservations may be made via this URL: www.supershuttle.com/?sid=parkinglinks%20

Light Rail: Fast and frequent rail service is available between the airport and downtown Minneapolis. Exit the train at Nicollet Mall and follow Nicollet Mall south to 7th St. Turn right and walk half a block; the hotel is located on the right side of the street.

To board trains at the Lindbergh Terminal, take the escalator down one level from the Tram Level in the Hub Building and purchase a rail ticket from the machine. Continue down another escalator to the rail platform. Rail fares are the same as local bus fares ($2.00 during rush hours, $1.50 at all other times). No express charges apply. Seniors, youth, Medicare card holders, and people with disabilities qualify for reduced fares during non-rush hours. Rush-hour fares apply Monday through Friday (except holidays) from 6 to 9 a.m. and from 3 to 6:30 p.m. There are no fare boxes on trains; you must pay for your ride before boarding the train. Police officers will randomly ask to see proof of fare payment on trains and stations. There is a $180 fine for riding trains or buses without paying.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

Teachers who would like to earn 3.3 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) for attending the CAMWS Annual Meeting in Minneapolis do not have to do anything in advance. When they arrive at the meeting, they should simply ask at the CAMWS registration desk for a CEU application form. Before they leave the meeting, they should return the completed form to the CAMWS registration desk, along with a check for $7.50, payable to "UW-Madison Extension."

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOP FOR STUDENTS

For the second year the Graduate Student Issues Committee (GSIC) will sponsor a pre-conference workshop, “Disce ut Doceas: Preparing to be a TA in Latin,” Wednesday, April 1, 6:00-8:00 p.m., in the Marriott (Pine/Cedar Lake Room). The workshop will cover major topics that the first-time Latin teacher at the college level needs to know: surviving the first day, classroom management, lesson planning, understanding different student learning styles, grammar and vocabulary drilling, writing quizzes, teaching the tough topics, using oral Latin, and classroom games, etc. All graduate and undergraduate students who expect to be teaching Latin for the first time in the next couple of years, or those who have already taught once or twice but feel that they would benefit from further training and practice, are welcome. The workshop is free, but please sign up for it on the registration form if you plan to attend.

ROUND-TABLE READING OF VERGIL'S AENEID, BOOK I

The Society for the Oral Reading of Greek and Latin Literature (SORGLL) invites you to a Round-Table Reading of Vergil's Aeneid, Book I, Thursday, April 2, 8:00-10:00 p.m., in the Marriott (Lake Nokomis Room). In the tradition of Dr. Gareth Morgan, participants will sit in a circle, each in turn reading a 5-10 line segment of the Aeneid in Latin. Diverse pronunciations welcomed! Make the case for the pronunciation YOU prefer by giving a juicy, interesting reading in that pronunciation! Texts of the Aeneid will be provided in prepared notebooks, in large, clear type, with macrons and illustrations. Although we are hoping to hear Latin from everyone, Dr. Stanley Lombardo's translation is given on facing pages, for those who prefer to read in English. Mark Miner will host. Feel free to call him (404-660-8205) if you would like to meet with him earlier on Thursday to polish your hexameters. Please make time in your busy CAMWS schedule to relax and enjoy Vergil's magical hexameters AS POETRY.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

After the pre-conference workshop sponsored by GSIC, a free reception, hosted by the former presidents of CAMWS, will officially open the meeting, 8:00-10:00 p.m., on Wednesday, April 1, in the Marriott. Between Thursday morning and Saturday afternoon there will be 57 paper sessions and 13 panels on a variety of pedagogical and scholarly topics, plus a happy hour for graduate students, receptions and/or breakfasts sponsored by the Vergilian Society, the Women's Classical Caucus, and the ACM/GLCA/ACS College Classicists, and a round-table reading sponsored by SORGLL. Friday afternoon's schedule will include a Presidential Panel entitled “Vox Humana, non solum Romana: Neo-Latin Literature and our Heritage” and a free reception held in the Hubert H. Humphrey Center. The CAMWS banquet on Friday evening will feature President Rob Ulery's address and the ovationes for 2008-09, presented in Latin by Jim May. 1) A Raisin in the Sun: April 1-4, 2009

2) By The Bog of Cats: April 1-4, 2009

* DOWLING STUDIO *

Set in rural Ireland, BY THE BOG OF CATS is an uncompromising tale of abandonment and shocking self-sacrifice. Hester Swane is a woman born of gypsies and tied to the bleak landscape where she has lived her whole life. Her lover, Carthage Kilbride, with whom she has a young daughter, is about to be married to another woman who will bring him land, wealth and respect. Discarded and ignored, Hester sets out with a reckless fervor to reclaim the life that she had. In this loose retelling of Euripides' MEDEA, Marina Carr blends the mythic with the modern, populating THE BOG OF CATS with misfits, witches, and ghosts. Following their sold-out production of THE PILLOWMAN in the 2007-2008 Guthrie season, Frank Theatre returns to the Dowling Studio to bring their fearless, take-no-prisoners style to this bold and uproarious play.
