

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

LATIN TRANSLATION CONTEST FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

The Classical Association of the Middle West and South offers $250 cash prizes, book awards, and letters of commendation to qualifying winners in its Latin Translation Contest. These intermediate and advanced exams are open to both high school (including home-schooled) and college/university students. The two groups will be judged separately.

Writers of the 10 most outstanding papers in the advanced high school competition will each receive a $250 cash prize. An additional 20 outstanding contestants will receive a book prize relevant to classical antiquity. Approximately 50 other writers of meritorious examinations will receive letters of commendation.

Writers of the 10 most outstanding papers in the intermediate high school competition will each receive a $50 cash prize. An additional 10 outstanding contestants will receive a book prize relevant to classical antiquity. Approximately 50 other writers of meritorious examinations will receive letters of commendation.

Teachers administering the high school exam must be individual members of CAMWS or their schools must be institutional members of CAMWS, or their school libraries must subscribe to the Classical Journal. This examination must be administered by a school official other than the Latin teacher at a designated time during the fall.

Further information, including application forms, deadlines and the names of previous winners of this contest, can be found at the contest webpage:
