Results

Summas gratias to all the volunteers who made this year’s competition possible. If you are interested in serving on the contest committee and/or grading papers next year, please contact Andrew Burrow (Carson-Newman University, TN) or Drew Lasater (Mountain Brook High School, AL).

The subcommittee members deserve the thanks of the CAMWS membership as a whole, and the thanks of the subcommittee co-chairs in particular, for their service: Giulio Celotto (University of Virginia, VA), E. Del Chrol (Marshall University, WV), Debra Freas (Wellesley College, MA), Matthew Harrington (Tufts University, MA), Lindley Henson (Central Magnet School, TN), Aleah Hernandez (University of California – Irvine, CA), Hilary Lehman (Knox College, IL), and Rebecca Moorman (Boston University, MA).

Contest Graders: A very special thanks to the following volunteers who shared their time and expertise to assist the committee in grading papers this year: Jeff Allen (Greenhills School, MI), Josh Benjamins (Hillsdale College, MI), Claire Bishop (Charlotte Christian School, NC), Tom Cirillo (Montgomery Bell Academy, TN), Clara Hardy (Carleton College, MN), Laura Manning (University of Kentucky, KY), Sarah McDaniels (Berkeley Preparatory School, FL), Daniel Ristin (University High School, IL), Brad Savage (Flint Hill School, VA), and Nathan Sundt (Veritas Christian Academy, NC).

Additional Information:

- Awards are distributed according to the guidelines found on the CAMWS website.
- In order to make the contest as fair and objective as possible, distribution of papers was randomized and blind, no reader graded his/her own students, and all of the papers were evaluated according to AP-style translation “chunks.”
- Names of winners are listed in descending order of performance.
