

Let's put the Q in QAMWS!

ALBUQUERQUE
April 11-14, 2018

Albuquerque is (nearly) a mile-high
Rocky Mountain city

The Sandia Mountains

2nd to last range in the Rockies

A L B U Q U E R Q U E

The Rio Grande flows through the Bosque del Apache

Albuquerque is beautiful, bright and temperate in April

Average daily highs: 55 to 60 degrees
With 13 hours of daytime sunshine!

Average nightly lows: 35 to 45 degrees

Albuquerque is a high, dry desert climate

April humidity averages 25-30% with little or no rainfall...

Albuquerque “International” Sunport

ABQ

The Hotel Albuquerque in Old Town

Gorgeous outdoor patio and pool spaces!

The University of New Mexico

Friday afternoon lunch and sessions

Student Union Building: the SUB

5 Fun Things to do in ABQ

mewiththeyetmom.com

What to see & do in the Q...?

Welcome to
NEW MEXICO
The Land of Enchantment

Old Town Plaza and shops

San Felipe de Neri Church (1793)

Route 66: Central Avenue

SANDIA PEAK TRAM

the World's Longest Tramway

Sunset view from Sandia Crest

© 2014 All rights reserved. Photo by [illegible]

Take the Rail Runner

Beep Beep!

Br<sup>35</sup>eaking Ba<sup>56</sup>d

Take a BB tour!

Qualified Local Attorneys
For all your legal needs!

Festive Local Dining!

See you in 'Burque in 2018!

