Let’s put the Q in QAMWS!

ALBUQUERQUE
April 11-14, 2018
Albuquerque is (nearly) a mile-high Rocky Mountain city
The Sandia Mountains
2nd to last range in the Rockies
The Rio Grande flows through the Bosque del Apache
Albuquerque is beautiful, bright and temperate in April

Average daily highs: 55 to 60 degrees
With 13 hours of daytime sunshine!

Average nightly lows: 35 to 45 degrees
Albuquerque is a high, dry desert climate

April humidity averages 25-30% with little or no rainfall…
Albuquerque “International” Sunport

ABQ
The Hotel Albuquerque in Old Town
Gorgeous outdoor patio and pool spaces!
The University of New Mexico

Friday afternoon lunch and sessions
Student Union Building: the SUB
5 Fun Things to do in ABQ

What to see & do in the Q...?
In 1706, New Mexico Governor Francisco Cuervo y Valdes founded the new Villa de Albuquerque (now Albuquerque), which became the principal settlement of the Rio Abajo, or lower river district. Here, the Camino Real wound its way through a series of farming and ranching communities and led to a nearby ford which linked the Camino Real to settlements on the west bank of the Rio Grande.
San Felipe de Neri Church (1793)
Route 66: Central Avenue
Sunset view from Sandia Crest
Take the Rail Runner

Beep Beep!
Take a BB tour!
Qualified Local Attorneys
For all your legal needs!
Festive Local Dining!
See you in ’Burque in 2018!